Wahoo's Fish Taco's Co-Founder Wins NAAAP-OC's 2nd Annual Golf Tournament

Huntington Beach, July 25, 2011 – The Orange County chapter of the National Association of Asian American Professionals (NAAAP) held its second annual golf tournament at Tijeras Creek Golf Club in Rancho Santa Margarita on Monday July 11th. The tournament began with a scramble at 11 AM followed by a shotgun and silent auction. A dinner and mixer concluded the event.

The celebrity guest golfer was Wing Lam, co-founder of the popular fish taco chain Wahoo's Fish Taco, who was a part of the winning team with the "Lowest Points" along with Dwight Nakata, Dan Poblete, and George Lim, one of NAAAP-OC's founders and current board of directors member. Other winners from the tournament include Tuan Nguyen for the "Longest Drive" and Young You, Director of IT at Vizio, for "Closest to Pin". Awards were presented to the winners at the dinner following the tournament.

Wells Fargo and Atrium Hotel were tee sign sponsors. Atrium Hotel also donated to the silent auction, along with Callaway, Disneyland, Microsoft, Tijeras Creek Golf Club, Verizon, Vizio, and Wahoo's Fish Taco. One of the highlights from the silent auction was when Gary Toyoma, former Senior Executive Vice President of Boeing, gave a ride to the raffle prize winner in his Lamborghini after the mixer.

About NAAAP Orange County:

The National Association of Asian American Professionals (NAAAP) is the largest and fastest growing non-profit Asian-American professional organization in the U.S. and Canada. Through its all-volunteer committees, NAAAP promotes the career advancement and leadership development of its members in all fields by offering networking and community service events, respecting Asian multiculturalism, and supporting diversity. The Orange County Chapter was founded in 2008 to bring NAAAP's mission of cultivating and empowering leaders for professional excellence; connecting accomplished professionals for mutual success; engaging and participating with the community-at-large; and inspiring leaders to make a meaningful difference in government, education, business, and society.
